

ABOUT THE AUTHOR JACQUELINE WOODSON

BY MARIA

ABOUT THE AUTHOR ;

The author of “If You Come Softly” Jacqueline Woodson has written many books other than that including;

- “The Dear One”
- “The House You Pass On the Way”
- “I Hadn’t Meant To Tell You This”
- “Lena”

She was born in Ohio, grew up in Greenville, South Carolina, on February 12th, and now lives in Brooklyn, New York. Where parts of this story take place. some of her favorite things are the color blue and she likes pizza.

She Has an Older Brother and Sister, and a younger brother, and she is also the shortest person in her family. Her favorite school subjects were English, Gym, and Spanish. She doesn’t just write she LOVES to read.

Some things you may not know about her are ;

Some places she likes to write are in Brooklyn, at the beach where there are sand dunes, and in the yellow chair in her office. When she was a toddler, she did a series of advertisements for Alaga Syrup in Ebony Magazine.